JOE GLENN, of near Paris, has accepted a clerkship with Price & Co.

CASA buyers can get double value today, at
 (tf) DAVIS, THOMSON & ISGRIG.

REV. F. W. EBERHARDT will preach at the Baptist Church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

DR. J. R. ADAIR is very ill with fever at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sallie Adair, near Shawhan.

In future bicycles will be carried free by the Kentucky Midland Railroad, when sent at the owner's risk.

MRS. ELIZA OGDEN stumbled on the porch of her residence, Wednesday, and broke one of the large bones in her wrist.

The earnings of the L. & N. the second week of July were $395,390, an increase of $26,400 compared with the corresponding period of 1896.

THE L. & N. will sell round trip tickets from Paris to Cincinnati at $1.25 Sunday. Tickets good only on regular train, leaving Paris at 4:45 a. m.

A BURGLAR entered Mrs. Buck's residence on Pleasant street, Wednesday night, and stole a sack of flour, a bucket of lard and a comb and brush.

THE union service will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, at eight o'clock, Sunday night. Rev. Dr. Ruthertford will conduct the service.

JIM BLUE, the Lewisburg negro who was shot on the excursion from Mt. Sterling last Thursday night by Hock Mason, of this city, died from the effects of his wounds.

WANTED.—To buy wheat. Will pay the highest market cash price. Sacks furnished.
 E. O. FRETWELL,
 P. O. Box 230, Paris, Ky.

THE Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune last Sunday contained a most interesting article by W. A. Hill Jr., on the "High Power" religious sect of this city. It was a graphic description of a weird Service.

COOPER & Co.'s SHOWS exhibited to four good sized audiences here Wednesday and yesterday. The performance was well worth the money, and was equal in merit to many larger and more pretentious shows.

HON. J. T. HINTON will soon begin the erection of a handsome storeroom on Maine street between Seventh and Eighth, which he recently purchased at Master's sale. The lot now has a one-story frame house on it.

THE City Council last night elected J. J. McClintock a Councilman from the First Ward, vice Wm. Remington, removed to Third Ward, and W. O. Hinton as Councilman from Second Ward, vice C. E. Nippert, removed to Cincinnati.

THE Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat says: The July number of the Empire magazine contains a beautiful little story, entitled "Aunt Geraldine's Charge," the work of Miss Willie Hurst Johnson, of the Commercial Hotel of this city. It is indeed a nice little story and shows that Miss Johnson is above the average girl in intellect. We hope some day to find her up in "G" in the world of authors.

Queer Cases In Court.

In Squire Lileston's court Henry Coleman, a "cullud gemman," was sentenced to thirty days in jail for borrowing and wearing a pair of John Erion's trousers without the consent of the owner.

Annie Williams was fined $10 for fighting and cursing a colored friend and throwing whiskey in her face.

Entered At Richmond.

The following Bourbon horses have been entered at the Richmond fair races which begin Tuesday and continue four days: Turney & Morris have entered Dorfmark, Baron Wood, Nellie T., General Helm and Katie S. Doug Thomas has entered Laura T., Corinne, Geo. Alex, Hattie Green, Joe Bailey, Jim Simmons and Carley. John T. Hedges will go for the money with Queenell and Shirque, and Harry Gaitskill will take over May Christine, Affie and Tom.

About The M. & L. Turnpike.

THE Commissioners—Messrs. C. M. Clay, Jr., Catesby Woodford and John C. Clay—recently appointed by the Bourbon Fiscal Court to appraise that portion of the Maysville & Lexington turnpike lying in Bourbon County have completed their work and made their report Wednesday.

They appraise the 17.91 miles of pike at $25,000, excluding toll-houses. This estimate includes that portion of the pike lying within the limits of the city of Paris and the Town of Millersburg.

It will be remembered that the Court recently offered $15,000 for fourteen miles of this pike (excluding that portion lying in Paris and Millersburg.) Col. Baldwin asked $45,000 and the result was the appointment of above Commissioners to try to arrive at a settlement.

The State owns one-half of the stock in the M. & L. pike, and Bourbon County holds $10,000 in the same stock, and the city of Paris owns $4,000 of the same.

A Committee representing the County and City visited Frankfort Wednesday to consult in regard to the purchase or donation of the State's stock—in the interest of free pikes. The absence of certain officials rendered the visit fruitless for the present.

The Midland's Sunday Trains.

SUNDAY trains will be run on the Kentucky Midland on August 1, 15 and 29. East-bound trains will run as follows: Leave Frankfort 7 a. m., Georgetown 7:50, arrive Paris at 8:25. Leave Frankfort 5:25 p. m., Georgetown 6:10 p. m., arrive Paris 6:45 p. m. West bound—Leave Paris 8:50 a. m., Georgetown 9:25, arrive Frankfort 10:30 a. m. Leave Paris 7 p. m., Georgetown 7:35, arrive Frankfort 8:30.

The East-bound train will be held at Georgetown until the "dollar special" arrives from Cincinnati if the business from Paris justifies. Dollar excursions will probably be run from Paris to Cincinnati on those dates over the Midland and Q. & C.

Kentuckians in Alaska

THERE will probably be many other Kentuckians besides the eight Bourbon county boys in Alaska soon in search of gold. Dr. H. C. Bowers, of Louisville, has sold his drug store, and started for the Yukon Valley. A dozen others from Louisville will also leave shortly for the ice-bound land of gold. J. S. Barbee and Bailey Warfield, of Eastern Kentucky, have already gone to the new Eldorado. People from all parts of the United States are flocking to Alaska and the California scenes of '49 are being duplicated.

A man who has just returned from the Alaska gold fields says it is hard to get along in Dawson City on less than $30 a day.

STOCK AND TURF NEWS.

Sales and Transfers Of Stock, Crop, Etc.—Turf Notes.

Wheat sold at sixty-eight cents at Lexington yesterday.

Much wheat has been ruined in Garrard by excessive rains.

J. K. Redmon's colt John Havlin won a $300 purse Tuesday at Oakley.

August Belmont has ordered a $5,000 statue of his favorite horse, Henry of Navarre.

John D. Harris, of Madison, has sold his crop of wheat at sixty cents per bushel for 6,000 bushels.

Smock Bros., of Mercer, raised 100 acres of wheat which averaged over thirty-five bushels to the acre.

Andrew Whitley, of Boyle, has sold 125 acres of wheat which averaged over 30 bushels to the acre, at 65 cents.

In Scott county Sunday night lightning struck and killed J. L. Luke's valuable thoroughbred mare Andata, which was worth more than $1,000. She was in foal to Hanover, and had a colt by Hanover at her side.

A big crowd attended Mt. Sterling court Monday. There were 1,000 cattle on the market but trade was dull except in sheep. R. S. Thompson, of Bourbon, bought a lot of 600-lb. cattle from Sample & Co., at $2.85 per cwt., and Jim Craig, of Paris, bought a bunch of 90-lb. sheep at 2½ cents.

At Louisville, Wednesday, the banner price of the season for leaf tobacco was realized for a hoghead of Henry county bright red Burley, which was knocked down at $24 per hundred pounds. The lucky farmer who sold it had three other hogheads and made a crop average of $17.94 per hundred.

WANTED.—To buy wheat. Will pay the highest market, cash price. Sacks furnished.
